

Interview	Student conducted an interview with a family member/relative of someone with a disability. A description of the method for the interview was explained either in the presentation or the paper.	_____/20
Summation	Interview contents demonstrated interviewee established rapport, uncovered information about the student, described the ways that collaboration for this student occurred, and described family dynamics as a result of the individual with the disability.	_____/20
Reflection	Student reflected upon the information presented throughout the process, and made relevant connections to his/her future practice. Student gained at least one new insight that was shared either through the presentation or through the paper.	_____/20
Professionalism	Paper had no mistakes in grammar, punctuation, or spelling, was appropriate length, and followed appropriate format.	_____/20
Presentation	Student presented their paper to the class with professionalism, and described the basics of the interview and the reflection.	_____/20

Student Name: _____

Additional Comments: